

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A milk beverage of the present invention comprises a polyglycerol fatty acid ester having a cloud point of not less than 90°C when measured at a concentration of 1 % by weight in a 20% sodium chloride aqueous solution containing said ester.